

EMMET GOWIN

American, b. 1941

Edith, Danville, Virginia; Edith, Chincoteague, Virginia; Edith and Moth Flight

1963; 1967; 2002

Emmet Gowin is an American photographer whose work includes a lot of intimate pictures of his wife Edith and her family. Gowin's work is interesting because the compositional elements of each photograph are different but the subject is the same. His pictures of his wife are often displayed on their own in galleries, but there is an interesting element of continuity when they are displayed together.